NO. 41

Merely Mentioned

Little Things Heard Here and There About You and Me—Our Visits and Our Visitors.

Good-bye to the world in yours.

Mr. J. H. Bell was an Owyhee visitor during the week.

Everybody likes a visitor, know the world that you are one of them.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Moore returned from their honeymoon last Friday.

David Dawson was in Evanston last Sunday to attend the funeral of his sister.

Mr. W. H. Branch left for Park City Tuesday morning, where he will work for some time.

Be a humorist and honest for the Board edition of the Coalville Times. Get the idea! Hurry.

Mr. George Lambert of the Lambert Paper Company was in Coalville Monday on business.

The week left a lucky boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bell last Saturday evening.

Mrs. T. Edgar Board left for Salt Lake last Sunday to visit with her parents for a short time.

A good many from here are attending conference and the state fair in Salt Lake this week.

On account of several errors in our printed list of awards of the county fair, we will later get a corrected list and print it.

If your town is a five-one it will be represented in the Board edition of the Times. So will your meetheat. It's going to be a winner.

A fine son was born to the wife of W. C. Snodgrass last Friday night. His parents are doing nicely and will be able to be at work again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bell visited in Peterson the first part of the week. They will visit in Kayville and Salt Lake before their return.

The first spade of dirt for the swimming pool was turned by Stake Clerk E. H. Rhein last Saturday. Work on the building will begin shortly.

The first snow of the season put in its appearance Monday night. Very little fell in the valley, but several inches covered the ground up Green Creek.

Last Saturday night the three saloons in this city went out of business, and when closing time came there wasn't enough "labor" left in all three places to run a "blind pig."

Thelma, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chappell, under went an operation for appendicitis on Tuesday at the French hospital. The operation was very successful.

Elder Wilford Allen left for Salt Lake Monday, Wednesday night, to left Salt Lake for Brigham, where he will labor as a missionary. The best wishes of a host of friends accompany him.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bell of Waukesha are now comfortably located in their home they recently purchased from Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cluff. This paper extends a hearty welcome to them.

New Modern Dwelling Destroyed by Fire

The new modern residence belonging to Geo. A. Robinson of Iona, near Idaho Falls, (former resident of Farmington, Davis county) erected at a cost of $2,500 was destroyed by fire on Saturday night, Sept. 9th. Origin of the fire was caused by defective flue.

WILLIAM ROBISON, Local Insurance Agent, of Morgan, took the first train for Idaho to adjust the loss. Property was fully covered by insurance.

Native lumber don't split when being nailed together, is easily worked and has no superior for paint. Put up a new hay shed. You will save from spoiling the first year enough hay to pay for it.

Powell Brothers Lumber Co.
SUMMIT FUR. & MER. CO.
Local Agents.

Roy White is reported very low as we go to press. His relatives have been sent for.

Coughing a severe fit from the roof at the Wasatch mine yesterday James Edwards was quite seriously injured.

Billy McLaughlin, the popular touring artist of Park City, visited in the country last Tuesday shaking hands with old friends.

James Ross Miller, of Echo, wishes to inform the public that his mill will be in operation and are prepared to do all kinds of mill work.

Mr. Samuel Bannister wishes to inform the public that he will begin weaving Carpets, Rugs, etc., between the first and fifteenth of November. Your patronage solicited.

After closing out his saloon business Mr. Thomas Watson and wife left for Salt Lake Wednesday morning, where they will visit for a few days before going to American Fork, their old home.

An excellent quality of thick seed raised on the Newhouse farm was on exhibition at the county fair. Also a good quality of peat for raising. Showing the country is excellently adapted for growing of both.

The duck season opened last Sunday and a fine line of the birds were down on the river and lagged a number of the well-tasted foods. We have heard of no one getting over the line, nor anywhere near it.

Marriage Banniess have been announced during the past week to Lucien M. Crittenden of Hoytsville and Edith May Woodard, Francis W. O. Stephens and Myrtle J. Harris, both of Heber; Lawrence C. Stinson and Miss Emily Branch, Coalville.

In a box of peaches received from the former Misses McTollins in Brigham City one peach measured 12½ inches around and the flavor was something great. It did my eyes good to see some real peaches after being accustomed to seeing the pears that have been on the market here.

The brick arrived for the new school house and in a day or two more will be laying them at a rapid rate. The building when completed will be one of the best in the state. Architects when last promised us a set of the building for the Board edition to be published on the 20th of the present month.

The series of ball games held during the county fair was won by the Heber City team. They easily won over their opponents, the Heber and Park City teams. After the regular game a second evening game was played between the Heber and Park City teams on a side lot, the former team winning by a good margin.

Do you want beautiful spring flowers? If so go to Thomas Beard and he will give you 12 Hyacinths for 25c; 12 Tulips for 30c; 12 Daffodils for 35c; 12 Crocus, 12 Scilla for 15c; 12 Snowdrops for 12c; 1 Peony for 12c; 1 Bleeding heart for 12c. These bulbs must be planted in the fall of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Callie of the Southern States Mission visited in Coalville the fore part of the week. Mr. Callie made a very interesting talk at the State Telephone Sunday evening. They left Tuesday morning for Salt Lake to attend conference. Their many friends here were pleased to see them looking so well.

Lorraine Stone and Miss Emily Branch, two of Coalville's popular young people, were married in the Salt Lake Temple Wednesday. After spending several days in Salt Lake they will return to this city, where they will make their home. The Times hastens to say God congratulations, and hopes their friends will all be little ones.

We want two or three good farms on the Weber river from $1000.00 to $6000.00 with improvements, somewhere between Heber and Oakley inclusive. Please write detailed letter describing everything, by mail or call in person on W. L. Hansen at the PROGRESS BUILDING, CO., 220 Kearns Street, Salt Lake City. Both phones 880.
